- Volume of completed transactions in USD (when applicable).

PART V: JUDGING PANEL

The judging panel consists of approximately 40 reputable members from the legal community, whose identities are kept confidential prior to the awarding ceremony.

The ALB team passes the nomination data to the external panel of judges, who examine the information and vote. The panel of judges will be given two weeks to review, score and evaluate the submission entries. The judges’ votes are aggregated to calculate the winner in each category. The judges' votes are independent of the ALB.

We do our best to ensure no conflict of interest in the judging process. Therefore, any score allocated by a judge to a finalist with whom he/she has an apparent conflict of interest is considered void.
